

MLS 2026 – General Terms and Conditions (“Terms”)

These Terms govern your online registration and attendance at and/or participation at Methane Leadership Summit 2026 (the “Event”). By registering for the Event the registered delegate agrees that they have read and accepted these Terms and agree to be legally bound by them.

CHANGES OR CANCELLATION OF THE EVENT

PTAC makes every effort to ensure that Event program, speakers, topics and venues and dates are correct at the time of publishing. Circumstances beyond our control may necessitate substitutions, alterations, postponements, or cancellations to the content, format, themes, name, performers, hosts, moderators, venue, timing or dates of the Event. PTAC will endeavor to notify registered delegates as soon as reasonably practicable of any postponements, or changes by posting the updated information on the official event website.

If the Event is postponed or canceled, PTAC will provide registered delegates with either a substitute pass for the new Event date, or a full refund.

In the unlikely cancellation of the Event, our total liability to the registered delegate is limited to the refund of paid event registration fees. PTAC will not be liable for any expenditure, damage or loss incurred by the registered delegate, their company or associated parties as a result of the cancellation including but not limited to travel or other hospitality related fees.

REGISTERING ON BEHALF OF ANOTHER

If you are registering on behalf of another person, it is your obligation to make sure that the person attending is aware of these Terms and acknowledges that registration in their name has been submitted and therefore accepts these Terms. By completing and submitting the registration form you are representing and guarantee that you have made the person attending aware of these Terms and that they have accepted these Terms.

ADMITTANCE

PTAC, without any liability or obligation to refund, reserves the right to refuse admittance to or to eject from the Event anyone that PTAC determines in its sole discretion:

- is behaving in a manner that could disrupt, hinder or cause a nuisance to the event or to the enjoyment of any other person or partner at the Event;

- represents a security or health & safety risk to the Event or to any person or partner;
- and/or fails to comply with, or is likely to fail to comply with, these Terms or other reasonable rules in place at the Event.

You agree to comply with all applicable laws in connection with your attendance or participation at the Event.

ATTENDANCE AT THE EVENT

Registered delegates are responsible for advising PTAC at the time of registration regarding any special access requirements required at the Event.

LANYARDS AND CREDENTIALS

For security and identification reasons, AI requires all registered delegates to display the official Event lanyard containing their credentials

PERSONAL INFORMATION

By participating in the Event, the registered delegate agrees that their name, job title, and company name and details may be shared with select sponsors and partners.

For additional information on how your personal information is managed, please review the PTAC Privacy policy here: <https://ptac.org/privacy-policy/>

VISA REQUIREMENTS

It is the sole responsibility of the registered delegate to take care of visa requirements, a valid passport and other necessary documentation for entrance into the country the conference is taking place. If you require an entry visa to attend, volunteer or exhibit at the Conference, you must allow sufficient time for the visa application procedure. In the instance that a visa is not granted to the Registered delegate, PTAC is under no obligation to refund the attendee outside of the Refund Policy below.

FORCE MAJEURE

PTAC is not liable if the Event is, in whole or in part, cancelled, rescheduled or postponed, or for any failure or delay to perform our obligations under these Terms, if such cancellation, rescheduling or postponement results from anything beyond PTAC's reasonable control and/or the reasonable control of PTAC's representatives and/or suppliers including, without limitation, acts of God, war, terrorism, labour disputes, pandemics or epidemics, global health emergencies, governmental action, or mechanical, electronic or communications failure or degradation, or anything else that renders performance of the Event, in whole or in part, impracticable, illegal or impossible.

REGISTRATION FEES

A valid ticket entitles its holder to entry to the relevant Event as an attendee only.

DELIVERY

Once a successful transaction has been completed, registration details will be delivered in electronic soft- copy via email to the email address submitted during registration. Please ensure to correctly enter the email address registration details should be sent to.

All registrations must be assigned to a single attendee, and all attendee details must be completed at the time of registration including but not limited to name and email address in order to issue a ticket/confirmation code. Ticket/confirmation code reassignment after registration is subject to the Terms.

The ticket/confirmation code acts as a receipt for the transaction and can be used to gain entry to the Event.

TRANSFER OF REGISTRATION

If a registered delegate finds that they cannot attend the Event, the registered delegate can sign into their registration and transfer to another person.

REFUND AND CANCELLATION

Registered delegate registration remains the property of PTAC and is a personal revocable license, which may be withdrawn, and admission to the Event may be refused at any time upon a refund of the printed registration price.

If for any reason the registered delegate is unable to attend the Event, they may request to cancel their registration via Eventbrite and based on the Refund Policy below a refund will be made in the same form as the original payment was received (for example, a credit card payment will refund to same credit card account number).

We reserve the right to change the ticket prices at any time but any changes will not affect tickets that have already been purchased. We may from time to time offer certain discounted ticket promotions to encourage attendance at a Conference. We are not obligated to offer any discounts for a particular Conference and reserve the right to change or withdraw a discount offer at any time at our sole discretion.

REFUND POLICY

Registration cancellations received 14 days prior to the event, will be refunded 100% minus the ticketing fee. The ticketing fee is non-refundable.

Registration cancellations received on or after March 31, 2026 are not eligible for a refund.
